Frankfort, December 1. N. S.

YEsterday Prince Eugene arrived here under a tripple Diſcharge of the Cannon of this City, and having ſtaid ſome Hours, he proceeded to Aſchaffenburg, where he is to have an Interview with the Elector of Mayence; from whence his Highneſs deſigns to continue his Journey to Vienna. The Regiments of Mecklenburg and Wolfenbuttel, which were marching towards their Winter Quarters in their reſpective Countries, have received Orders from General Gronsfeldt, to return to Weynheim. They write from Ratisbon, that the General Diet hath ſent Memorials to the chief Potentates of the Alliance, deſiring them to have a particular regard to the Security of the Empire at the next Treaty of Peace, by obliging France to reſtore the entire Dutchies of Lorrain and Barr, together with the City and Bailliages of Longwic, Clermont, Stenay, and all the Lands which they were obliged to deliver up to France in the Year 1661, as well as thoſe which the Dukes of Lorrain were poſſeſſed of before the Regency of Duke Henry the IIId. and which they enjoyed long before the Treaty of Weſtphalia; the Landgraviate of Upper and Lower Alſatia; the Principality of Montbelliard and its Dependencies; the Bailliages, Lordſhips and Dominions belonging to the Teutonick Order, and that of St. John; the Sundgow and Briſgow, with all the Fortifications along the Rhine from Baſil to Philipsburg; Bedford, Pfalzburg, Hombourg, Bilſch; the Bailliage of Haguenau; the Biſhopricks of Mets, Toul and Verdun, with the City of Moyenwic; the Biſhoprick, City and Fortreſs of Strasburg; whatſoever hath been taken from the Biſhoprick of Baſil; Franche-Comté, and the Fortreſſes of Thionville and Saar-Louis; and to inſiſt on the demoliſhing of Huninguen, Landſcrown, New Briſac, Fort Lewis and Fort Mortier. It is alſo propoſed in theſe Memorials, that all the Subjects of the Empire, of what Quality and Condition ſoever, ſhall be eſtabliſhed in their Ancient Rights, Privileges and Immunities; that a Barrier be appointed for the continual Security of the Empire, and particularly of the four Aſſociated Circles which are moſt expoſed; and that the Cities, Lordſhips, and all other Territories in the Low-Countries belonging to the Crown of Spain, which are Feudatories to the Empire, be reſtored to his Catholick Majeſty; and that all things be regulated in ſuch a manner, that the French King, or his Succeſſors, may never hereafter form any Claim or Pretenſion to the ſame. Theſe Letters add, that on the 24th of the laſt Month the Deputies of the Proteſtant Princes had a Conference together; and that they had alſo writ to her Britannick Majeſty, and the States-General, to recommend to their Conſideration the Intereſt of their Religion at the next Treaty of Peace; and that they will have an eſpecial Regard that they enjoy the ſame Freedom in the Exerciſe of it as formerly.

Cologn, December 4. N. S. The Cardinal Saxe-Zeits and the Count of Konigſeck are daily expected in this Place. General Berſau reviewed our Garriſon Yeſterday. It is ſaid that ſome Potentates in the Alliance will ſuddenly ſend Miniſters hither, to Mediate between the King of Pruſſia and this City, and endeavour wholly to Accommodate the Miſunderſtandings between them. Several Daniſh and Saxon Officers continue to recruit their reſpective Companies in theſe Parts. Divers Pruſſian Officers who were Quartered in our Neighbourhood are gone into Brandenburg, in order to raiſe new Levies. The Garriſon of Bonn, conſiſting of four thouſand Men, is to be reinforced with a Dutch Regiment. Many French Parties paſs frequently through our Neighbourhood; but we have not heard of any conſiderable Attempt that hath been made, or great Injury done to the Inhabitants of the Country. Some Saxon Companies have lately marched through theſe Territories in their way to Winter Quarters in their own Dominions.

Hague, December 6. N. S. Letters from Paris adviſe, that the Marſhal d' Harcourt hath been created a Peer of France, in Conſideration of his Service on the Rhine laſt Year. The French King hath ſent Commiſſioners into Franche-Comte, to make an exact ſearch for all ſuch as were ſuſpected to have held any Correſpondence with Count Merci, when he paſſed the Rhine, in order to penetrate into thoſe Parts; and it is adviſed that ſeveral Perſons have already left their Habitations, for fear of being Proſecuted for favouring that Deſign. Theſe Letters add, that beſides a Buckle ſet in Diamonds, which the French King ſent to the Duke of Bavaria by Monſieur Torcy, his Majeſty alſo preſented that Prince with twenty five Purſes, in each of which were two thouſand Livres in Gold, which Preſent was made him to defray the Expences of his Journey. Letters from the North adviſe, that it being reported at Elſinor, that the Swediſh Fleet was ſailed from Karlſcroon, and had taken a Yacht in the Baltick belonging to the King of Denmark, the Daniſh Fleet immediately hoiſted Sail, and ſtood towards Karlſcroon, ſo that it is expected we ſhall ſoon receive Advice of an Engagement between thoſe two Fleets.

Falmouth, Dec. 1. On the 28th paſt, at 8 at Night, the Mercury Packet-Boat was driven back by a ſtrong Gale of Southerly Wind. Yeſterday arrived the Prince Packet-Boat, Capt. Chenhall Commander, in ſix Days from Lisbon. We have an account from Mountsbay of a French Banker ſent in there by the Auguſt Man of War. The Expedition Packet-Boat will ſail to Morrow for London, if the Wind proves fair, being unfit for the Service.

Portſmouth, December 4. Sir John Norris continues ſtill at Spithead, on Board her Majeſty's Ship the Ranelagh, with the Elizabeth, Nottingham, Sunderland, Rupert, Windſor, Nonſuch, Goſport, Berwick, Grafton, Warſpight, Oxford, Edgar, Guernſey, Aſſiſtance, and Phœnix Fire-ſhip.
